§ 1 Registration

1. The registration takes place exclusively by using the PDF or the online registration form of the organizer.
The registration is binding. The organizer shall decide on admission (§ 3).

§ 2 Inclusion and acceptance

By registering, the applicant accepts the conditions of participation, any "special trade fair, festival and exhibition conditions" and technical guidelines of the organizer as binding for him and all persons employed by him at the trade fair. These regulations thus become part of the contract between the exhibitor and the organizer.

§ 3 Admission

1. Only those exhibitors can be admitted whose stand and exhibition contents correspond to the trade fair / convention concept of the organizer. The organizer may restrict individual stand areas for objectively justified reasons, in particular if the space available is insufficient. In case of obvious copied goods / designs, the organizer decides individually on the admission to the fair.
2. With the written confirmation of the admission, the contract between the applicant as exhibitor and the organizer is concluded. Admission will only be granted if the partial amount due after registration (50% of the invoice amount) has been paid within 30 days of receipt of the registration. Admission may be revoked if the conditions for its granting did not exist or subsequently ceased to exist.

§ 4 Reservation of subsequent changes

1. the organizer is entitled to postpone, shorten, extend or temporarily close or cancel the trade fair/convention in whole or in part in the event of unforeseen events that make it impossible to carry out the trade fair/convention as planned and for which the organizer is not responsible. Exhibitors' claims, irrespective of their legal basis, in particular for damages and reimbursement of expenses, are excluded. If the trade fair has to be closed as a result of force majeure or by order of the authorities, the exhibitor shall owe the full amount of the agreed stand rent and all other costs to be borne by him.
2. in the event of a postponement, exhibitors may demand cancellation of the contract if they can prove that the dates overlap with another trade fair for which they have already made firm bookings. They shall only be required to reimburse the costs incurred at their instigation.
3. in the event of a shortening or only temporary closure of the trade fair, the exhibitor shall not be entitled to any claims.

§ 5 Cancellation by the exhibitor

1. if a cancellation is made by 28.02.2024, the exhibitor will receive a full refund of the partial invoice amount paid up to that date. In the event of cancellations between 01.03.2024 and 01.05.2024, the organizer will demand 25% of the agreed stand rent incl. flat rates as a contribution to costs. In case of later cancellations, the full invoice amount will be due. Further costs incurred at the instigation of the exhibitor shall also be borne by the exhibitor.
2. cancellation requires a written application. It shall only become effective when accepted in writing by the organizer.

§ 6 Stand allocation

1. the arrangement of the stands shall be made by the organizer, taking particular account of the event concept and the theme specified by the trade fair/ convention.
2. until the hall plan has been drawn up, the organizer will try to take into account the exhibitor's wishes regarding stand form and placement. A claim does not exist. After that, the stands will be allocated according to availability.
3. the stand allocation will be communicated in writing at the latest 4 weeks before the fair.
4. the organizer is entitled at any time to relocate the entrances and exits to the exhibition grounds as well as the emergency exits and passages in the halls for compelling reasons.

§ 7 Subletting

1. the exhibitor is not entitled to sublet or otherwise let the stand allocated to him, in whole or in part, or to exchange it or accept orders for other companies without the approval of the organizer.
2. in the case of subletting to third parties not approved with the admission, the organizer is entitled to demand that the subtenant vacate the stand, whereby the exhibitor's obligation to pay rent remains unaffected.

§ 8 Joint stands

If several exhibitors rent a stand jointly, each of them shall be liable as joint and several debtor. They must name a joint representative in the application. This representative shall be deemed to be authorized to make and receive legal declarations of all kinds on behalf of the exhibitors.
